

Political Studies
Association

Political Studies Association Specialist Groups

Ethnopolitics, Global Justice & Human Rights, and Women & Politics conference

RIGHTS IN DIVERSE SOCIETIES: GENDER, MIGRATION AND ETHNOPOLITICS IN THE EU
QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY BELFAST 18-19 NOVEMBER 2016

Canada Room

FRIDAY, 18 NOVEMBER

09.00 COFFEE, REGISTRATION

09.15 Opening remarks (Timofey Agarin, Birgit Schippers)

09.45-11.00 Panel 1: Challenges for Inclusive Peace Settlements Chair: C Murtagh

Ms Maria-Adriana Deiana (Dublin City University) Settlements for a Gendered Peace: Insights from post-Dayton Bosnia-Herzegovina

Ms Laura Wise (University of Edinburgh) "It is decided in Brussels for us": Competing Discourses of Decentralization and Inclusion in Kosovo

Mr Jan Pospisil (University of Edinburgh) (paper co-authored with Christine Bell) Negotiating inclusion: the space of the formalised political unsettlement

11.15-12.30 Panel 2: Inclusive Institutions for Diverse Societies Chair: L Wise

Ms Cera Murtagh (University of Edinburgh) The Perilous Centre Ground: Civic Parties in Bosnia and Herzegovina and Northern Ireland

Ms Siofra Frost (Queen's University Belfast) Consociationalism and Overlapping Identities: The Accommodation of Non-Aligned Minorities in Post-Conflict Societies

Mr Salim Orhan (Ankara University), Constitutional Accommodation in Deeply Divided Societies through Power-Sharing

12.30-13.30 LUNCH

13.30-15.00 Panel 3: Responses to refugees Chair B Schippers

Mr Sertan Akbaba (Ahi Evran University), An Analysis of Multiculturalism in Turkey: Comparing the Disadvantaged Groups and Refugees

Mr Balázs Dobos (Institute for Minority Studies, Centre for Social Sciences, Hungarian Academy of Sciences), Integration through Elections? The Non-Territorial Autonomies of Central and South Eastern Europe

Ms Julija Sardelic (University of Liverpool) 2015/6 Refugee crisis and the new challenges of recognition/redistribution in Europe

Mr Bojan Perovic (University of Hamburg), Islamophobia and Media Representation of Refugees in Serbia

15.00-15.15 COFFEE BREAK

15.15-16.30 Mr Les Allamby (Chief Commissioner of the NICHR) ‘The role of a National Human Rights Institution where human rights are a contested space’ Keynote, moderated by Yvonne Galligan (QUB, Head of School of History, Anthropology, Politics and Philosophy)

18.00 CONFERENCE DINNER, Kathmandu Kitchen, 11 Botanic Ave

SATURDAY, 19 NOVEMBER

10.00 COFFEE

10.15-11.15 Panel 5: Setting the agenda for locally focused research Chair: T Agarin

Ms Aleksandra Zdeb (University of Graz) and Ms Cera Murtagh (University of Edinburgh) Non-ethnic parties and social movements in divided cities in comparative perspective

Mr Petr Čermák (University of Brno) Ethno-territoriality and prospects for peace after ethnic conflict

11.15-11.30 BREAK

11.30-13.00 Panel 6: Citizenship in Diverse Societies Chair: B Dobos

Ms Judit Molnar (University of Glasgow), Ethnic Diversity, Autonomy and Political Community in Central and Eastern Europe

Mr Bashir Otukoya (University College Dublin), 'Part of the Nation': Becoming but not Being Irish

Ms Eszter Herner-Kovacs (Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Center for Social Sciences, Institute for Minority Studies), What kind of Hungarians abroad? Differences of Hungarian kin-state and diaspora policies

Mr Cengiz Gunes (The Open University), Articulation of gender equality in the pro-Kurdish democratic discourse in Turkey

13.00-14.00 LUNCH

14.00-15.30 Panel 7: Recognition of difference in Contemporary Europe Chair: J Sardelic

Ms Diana Popescu (London School of Economics) Redistribution and recognising the reprehensible

Mr David Jenkins (Institute for Human Sciences, Vienna), Recognition and Basic Income

Mr Aidan McGarry (Brighton) Romaphobia: The last acceptable racism in Europe

15.30-15.45 COFFEE BREAK

15.45-16.45 Mr John Coakley (QUB) Ethnopolitical mobilisation in Europe: the gender dimension Keynote, moderated by Mr Timofey Agarin

16.45-17.00 Closing Remarks